Liberating Lutherans: Theology & Organizing for the Church Today

Spirit of Life and Church of the Cross are collaborating on an education offering. Liberating Lutherans: Theology & Organizing for the Church Today. September 17 to November 5, 8 Thursdays for 60 minutes per class over Zoom.

This is a reading and discussion group that will offer a brief survey of liberation theology in the context of application for ministry today. The idea grew out of the small group discussion around Broad Based Organizing at the One Body Gathering in Coquitlam in June.

This online theology course is free and open to anyone who wants to join. It is not a synod offering, but a conversation two congregations are opening to others. There will be a syllabus ready by early September, but you can expect excerpts and articles from authors like James Cone, Wil Gafney, and Gustavo Guitérrez. As well as applications of organizing and theology principles participants will be invited to make in their own ministry context. Rather than following one book we will be making readings available online that everyone can access.

Expect around 20 pages of reading per week. This is not an academic course, it is about making theology accessible to everyone.

For more info contact either of the church offices, who will forward your email to the leaders: Audrey Guay, Pr.

Aneeta Saroop, and Pr. Lyndon Sayers

135th Anniversary at Mount Zion, Sept 20

CJAG - Living Water - Season of Creation 2026

The BC Synod Climate Justice Action Group (CJAG) invites Lutheran congregations to celebrate the global and ecumenical initiative "Season of Creation" this Fall. The logo, "Living Water," portrays God's life-giving water flowing from the temple of God. The river grows deeper and deeper restoring barren land, reviving waters, and sustaining flourishing ecosystems. The vision invites human responsibility.

Season of Creation starts September 1st, the World Day of Prayer for Creation, and end October 4th, the day of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

Please look up the 2026 Celebration Guide at <https://seasonofcreation.org/>

A PDF with more info can be downloaded here.

Campfire in the City

Come and join us at Dunbar Lutheran's garden (3491 West 31st Ave) for evenings of family-friendly campfire fun – songs, stories, and s'mores.

We gather Friday, September 11th, 7:30 pm – 9 pm.

Stop by for the evening, or just for a while. Bring a lawn chair if you have one – if not, we'll find a seat for you.

Light drizzle won't stop us, but in case of heavy rain, the event will be cancelled.

Job Opportunity - Youth Minister

Are you a relational, pastorally gifted leader with a heart for young people?

Good Shepherd Lutheran and St. Laurence Anglican in Coquitlam are two congregations working together across their traditions:

affirming, justice-oriented, and investing in dedicated professional youth ministry leadership to build on strong foundations and grow what they have begun together.

This is a role for someone who loves working with young people, thrives on genuine relationships, and is ready to build something meaningful in partnership with a community poised for growth
To see more details and learn how to apply please click here or check out the ignYte page on Good Shepherd's website here

ELCIC Justice Updates

NATI-RETI: "Where Now for Visible Justice?"

The North America-Turtle Island Regional Ecumenical Theological Institute \(NATI-RETI\) took place from August 3-16 under the theme: "Where Now for Visible Justice?" The institute began with a residential week in Detroit, followed by a second week at the University of Toronto, where emerging theologians and ecumenical leaders from Canada and the United States spent two weeks of intensive learning, prayer, encounter and community life. For more information on NATI-RETI and to read the full article, please click here.

Join the CPJ Ride for Refuge

The Citizens for Public Justice (CPJ) is holding a fundraising initiative called CPJ Ride for Refuge - where they're fundraising for refugee and migrant rights, and to keep the advocacy work going strong. On October 3rd, CPJ and their supporters are gathering in downtown Ottawa (and at satellite events across the country) for the CPJ Ride for Refuge. Teams of CPJ supporters are collecting pledges now. Those who will will fundraise will celebrate their achievement at the CPJ Ride for Refuge event. For more details on this and to learn how to join, please click here.

Join in the Faith and Life Sciences Essay Contest

The Faith and Life Sciences Reference Group \(FLSRG\) is an active group of life scientists, ethicists and Church leaders, working under the aegis of The Canadian Council of Churches, tasked to capture, evaluate and provide recommendations for faith-based perspectives in the rapidly-emerging area of the life sciences and related technologies. The FLSRG has created this essay contest to engage students in robust reflection on pressing issues that have bearing on the Canadian church today. Each year winning essays are eligible for cash awards. This essay contest is fully bilingual; submissions written in French or English are invited. ELCIC Sermon Series Bishops and Assistants to the Bishops are once again offering weekly sermons for congregational use, available from May through October.

Each weekly sermon includes both written and video formats, ready to download and use in ways that best fit your worship context. These resources are especially helpful during vacation season and offer a meaningful way to connect your congregation with leaders from across the ELCIC.

Interested in using these sermons? Sign up to access the full set of resources.

 Please note it may take a couple of days to receive access.

An invitation to a shared Box folder will come from Carter Brooks in the ELCIC National Office.
