1. Concern, Prayers for Venezuela

The ELCIC joins with The Lutheran World Federation (LWF) and stands in solidarity with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Venezuela and with the communities affected by the situation in the country that has been deteriorating for months. ELCIC National Bishop Larr Kochendorfer offers the following prayer:

God most mighty, God most merciful, you are our refuge and strength. We come before you with heavy hearts, lifting up the people of Venezuela following the U.S. military action on January 3. Bring calm where there is fear, clarity where there is confusion, and restraint where there is anger or despair. We pray for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Venezuela where there is anger or despair. We pray for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Venezuela and its Bishop, Gerardo A Hands Colmenares. Let the church be a living sign of your grace and a place of refuge, truth, accompaniment, and hope for all who suffer. Where systems oppress and voices are silenced, raise up pathways of accountability, reconciliation and peace. Guide us all in the way of building peace built on justice, equality, and recognition of every human life as sacred. We entrust Venezuela, its people and your church into your loving hands, trusting not in our own strength but in your steadfast love made known in Jesus Christ, who is our peace, and whose name we pray. Amen.

2. New Year's Message 2026

The light of Christ changes how we see the world and “God can make us humans new by drawing us into this new perspective,” says The Lutheran World Federation (LWF) General Secretary Rev. Dr. Anne Burghardt in her New Year message to the global communion of churches.

Reflecting on the words of Revelation 21:5 ‘See I am making all things new’, Burghardt reflects on the way that God’s promise “stretches across time, from the moment those words were first spoken to the early Christian community,” up until our present day. How do we receive this message, she asks? “With hope or with fear? With longing or with resistance?” To read the full message, please click on the button below:

Join Our Ecumenical Shared Ministry Educational Event - February 12

As the landscape of Canadian churches changes across the country, interest in Ecumenical Shared Ministry (ESM) as a means of supporting vibrant and sustainable church presence and witness in communities from coast to coast to coast is growing. ESM involves the moving into an intentional partnership with one or more of the other Christian churches in your neighbourhood or town to share more of your life and ministry together. This can include things like sharing programs, ministers, buildings, worship services, and more. This online educational event is designed for people in local congregations who are interested in exploring the possibility of ESM as a fit in their context, and who want to learn more.

Special guests include Canadian ESM experts such as Rev. Dr. Sandra Beardsail, and Ms. Cathryn Wood, from the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism, together with members of the national Lutheran-Anglican-Moravian Commission. While the gathering will have some specific focus on the potential relationships of these three full communion churches, participation from other denominations is also warmly welcome and encouraged.

Curious about what shared ministry could look like where you live? Register now for the February 12 ESM Education Event and take the first step in exploring ecumenical partnership.
